Outing General Information

Field size from 32 to 124 players can be accommodated. Events of 72 players or more may be shotgun start on non-holidays Monday or Fridays. Shotgun events are billed at a minimum of 72 players regardless of how many players actually play. All outings begin at 1 PM. Events must play regardless of weather, unless previously cancelled by the Head Golf Course Professional. Deposits are non-refundable.

(Initial)

Player Information

The outing must supply complete player information eight (8) days in advance of the event. Information shall include the golfer's name with pairings. The course shall use the player list to create score cards and score sheets and block the appropriate amount of tee time space.

(Initial)

Food and Beverage

Food and Beverage selections must be coordinated with the Golf Course Food and Beverage Vendor at least one week prior to the event, with a firm count on players. This headcount will be fixed at this time, and the Outing will be billed at a minimum for these players. All food and beverage consumed on the property must be purchased through the Golf Course Food and Beverage Vendor. Any player caught bringing alcoholic beverages to the course will be removed from the property without refund.

(Initial)

Vandalism/Damage

Should any unusual damage beyond normal wear and tear occur to the golf course, golf carts, or any club property in the conduct of the event, the outing will be billed any and all repair costs. Should property (i.e. Golf carts, rental clubs, Signage, etc.) be missing as a result of theft by participants, the outing will be billed at replacement cost.
