EXPULSIONS, APPEALS and REFUNDS

SUSPENSION OR EXPULSION and APPEALS:

The Golf Professional, the Clubhouse Staff and the Course Staff shall enforce the rules of Green Hill Municipal Golf Course. Violations may be given to players for infractions. Immediate suspension may result for serious violations. The Commissioner, or his designee, may expel or suspend any player for any and all egregious confirmed violations of Golf Course rules and policies. The person shall be notified by the Department as to the active date of suspension or expulsion. A player may appeal their suspension or expulsion notice to the Commissioner, or his designee by requesting a hearing. In the event no written contact is made prior to the activation date, suspension or expulsion shall begin on that date. Suspension will include all of the course property including restaurant and activities, practice facilities, and golf course. Suspended players are not entitled to refunds or credits during their suspension. A hearing shall be set up upon request within a reasonable time frame. The player may bring with them any written information, witnesses, or other materials they feel may help their cause. All judgments at the hearing shall be final.

Membership credit:

A player may request a credit of their season golfing permit under the following guidelines. There are no cash refunds once the season has begun. Credits are given to the following year's pass and are not transferable.

- 1) Credit may be given all or in partial for medical reasons.
- 2) Credit is not based on rounds played but rather how long the permit has been active.
  - a. Request made prior to the start of play, (course opening) may be entitled to a full refund.
  - b. Refund requests made in April may be entitled to a refund/credit up to 75% of the permits value.
  - c. Refund requests made in May, may be entitled to a refund/credit up to 50% of the permits value.
  - d. Refund requests made in June may be entitled to a refund/credit up to 25% of the permits value.

All requests must be made in writing. Any request after July 1st shall not be considered. All information must be submitted with written request. The Parks Commissioner or his designee shall be the sole determiner of any credit in part or whole. There shall be no cash refunds given once the golfing season has opened. Credits will be extended only until the next season and can only be applied towards the purchase of a new season permit. Credits are not transferable to any other person.

Bereavement/Transfer refund.

Refunds are available for military transfers and death of a player. Refund requests made prior to the start of the season are entitled to a full refund, requests made in April 75% refund, May 50% refund and June 25% refund. Requests made after June 30th shall not be considered.

All rules, regulations, policies and fees were approved at the Oct 2025 Parks and Recreation Commission meeting.
